

PRESIDENT TAFT WILL BE AT THE PUEBLO STATE FAIR.

President Taft and party is coming to the State Fair at Pueblo on Wednesday, Sept. 22. He will see the largest display of fruit he ever saw in his life; he will see the largest and best display of horses, cattle, sheep, and hogs ever exhibited in a western state; he will meet the finest people (providing you are there, dear reader) on earth and he will know what real western hospitality means, for he will mix with the people out in the open. The Colorado State Fair management desires you to attend the fair this year, because it promises to be by far the best in every respect ever given. It has cost the citizens of Pueblo nearly half a million dollars to establish this fair and now that it is a good one everybody is cordially invited to attend. Then, too, President Taft is coming here especially to see you, to talk to you and get acquainted with the people of a state that is making the dry plains a mighty farming district.

Pueblo extends a cordial invitation to everybody, and the things to be seen at the State Fair will more than repay you for all the time and money spent in the visit. If you have anything that you think other people would like to see, bring or send it to the fair. There is a prize for almost everything under the sun. At night there will be plenty of outdoor amusements, and on Wednesday night the Sun Worshippers will make a parade of their order which will eclipse anything ever seen, consisting of an electrical display unexcelled. Something doing every minute. Railroads all make very low rates.

It is expected to have the Golden Flyer, the Glenn Curtis flying machine here, operated by Willard, the man who is starting the easterners. Watch for later announcements of this wonderful mile-a-minute air-crafting machine.

WHAT IS PAINT?

The paint on a house is the extreme outside of the house. The wood is simply a structural under layer. That is as it should be. Unprotected wood will not well withstand weather. But paint made of pure white lead and linseed oil is an invulnerable armor against sun and rain, heat and cold. Such paint protects and preserves, fortifying the perishable wood with a complete metallic casing.

And the outside of the house is the looks of the house. A well-constructed building may be greatly depreciated by lack of painting or by poor painting.

National Lead Company have made it possible for every building owner to be absolutely sure of pure white lead paint before applying. They do this by putting upon every package of their white lead their Dutch Boy Painter trademark. That trademark is a complete guarantee.

SUBJECT TO CONDITIONS.

Gimlet—Fibbs claims to have caught a catfish weighing 50 pounds down in the creek, does he? Well, it's safe to say he's lying to the extent of about 40 pounds.

Hammer—Not if he hears you say it.

Mottoes of a Queen.

Her majesty, the queen of Portugal, pins her faith, it is said, to the following mottoes:

Keep out of doors all you can. Breathe outdoor air, live in it, revel in it. Don't shut yourself up. Build your houses so that the air supply is good. Throw away your portieres and bric-a-brac. Don't have useless trifles about you.

Have a favorite form of exercise and make the most of it. Ride on horseback if you can; cycle if you cannot get a horse; do anything to get out in the open air.

Don't overeat. Drink little and let that little be pure. Don't try to dress too much, yet dress as well as you are able. Wear everything you can to make yourself lovely.

True Thrift.

"When visiting a certain town in the Midlands," says a medical man, "I was told of an extraordinary incident wherein the main figure, an economical housewife, exhibited, under trying circumstances, a trait quite characteristic of her. It seems that she had by mistake taken a quantity of poison—mercurial poison—the antidote for which, as all should know, comprises the whites of eggs. When this antidote was being administered, the order for which the unfortunate lady had overheard, she managed to murmur, although almost unconscious, 'Mary, Mary! Save the yolks for the puddings!'"—Tit-Bits.

Troubles of People on Venus.

Inhabitants of Venus, if there are any, must feel it extremely difficult to establish units of time. Venus always turns the same face toward the sun; so the planet has no day, and the lack of a moon deprives it of a month. Finally, it has no year, for its axis of rotation is perpendicular to the plane of its orbit, and the latter is almost circular.

PRESSED HARD

Coffee's Weight on Old Age.

When prominent men realize the injurious effects of coffee and the change in health that Postum can bring, they are glad to lend their testimony for the benefit of others.

A superintendent of public schools in North Carolina says:

"My mother since her early childhood, was an inveterate coffee drinker and had been troubled with her heart for a number of years, and complained of that 'weak all over' feeling and sick stomach."

"Some time ago I was making an official visit to a distant part of the country and took dinner with one of the merchants of the place. I noticed a somewhat peculiar flavor of the coffee, and asked him concerning it. He replied that it was Postum."

"I was so pleased with it, that after the meal was over, I bought a package to carry home with me, and had wife prepare some for the next meal. The whole family liked it so well, that we discontinued coffee and used Postum entirely."

"I had really been at times very anxious concerning my mother's condition, but we noticed that after using Postum for a short time, she felt so much better than she did prior to its use, and had little trouble with her heart and no sick stomach; that the headaches were not so frequent, and her general condition much improved. This continued until she was as well and hearty as the rest of us."

"I know Postum has benefited myself and the other members of the family, but not in so marked a degree as in the case of my mother, as she was a victim of long standing."

STORY OF AWFUL LOSS OF LIFE

PRIESTS BRING HORRIFYING DETAILS OF DEATH AND DESTRUCTION IN FLOOD.

OVER 2,000 ARE DEAD

NOT A STONE WAS LEFT UPON A STONE WHERE VILLAGE ONCE STOOD.

Monterey, Mex.—A number of village priests, after making journeys over miles of devastated country, arrived here bringing the first news of the destruction wrought by recent floods in the outlying districts. Their stories indicate that the havoc is more widespread than at first believed.

The priest of Arrambieri informed Archbishop Lenares that Arrambieri was destroyed and that his people are wandering over the country in search of food. The destruction of the roads has made it impossible to send in supplies.

The story brought in by the priest of La Ascension is that this town and its population of 2,000 have entirely disappeared. He does not know where the people are.

"Not a stone was left upon a stone in La Ascension," the priest said, "Where there were once rich farms there is now nothing but water."

Another priest from Allende says that place also has disappeared with large loss of life and that the fields have been converted into lakes. The priests were more than a week making their way into Monterey. Aid is urgently needed in these outlying districts, particularly as the authorities are busy with Monterey and its vicinity.

Bustamant and La Escondida have been added to the list of destroyed villages.

Not the Lass of Mohe.

Hutchinson, Kans.—Max McGregor, a handsome young man of this city, has discovered that Indian princesses are not what they are painted.

McGregor, who was lured to Oklahoma by a love note written on a strawberry box by Mandy Kuykendall, an Indian girl at Salasaw, Okla., was arrested charged with taking money belonging to Mrs. Mary Reed of this city and spending it for railroad fare to take him to the home of his Indian princess.

Following the strawberry incident, letters were exchanged and McGregor went to Salasaw to meet the Indian girl, whom he supposed was pretty and rich. He was disappointed by her appearance, he said, and went to Muskogee to get work, when he was arrested on a message from Sheriff Duckworth of Hutchinson, charging him with embezzlement.

"Peary Damned Himself."

New York.—Capt. B. S. Osborn, secretary of the Arctic club, of which Doctor Cook is a member and one of the most positive of the critics, gave an interview tonight on the dispatches from Commander Peary published in the newspapers.

"Gold brick," he found a particularly offensive epithet.

"Peary had better shut up," exclaimed the captain, banging the table with his fist. "Peary has damned himself by his own words. You ought to see the letters I am getting from judges, mayors and business men.
